

LOSTINE DEPARTMENT

Miss Bethel McKenale at the Postoffice is authorized to receive and receipt for subscriptions and advertising for the News-Record, and to receive and receipt for job work.

Demand Exceeds Supply.

Messrs. Martin and Bowman are preparing to burn another kiln of lime at their quarry six miles up the river from Lostine. These gentlemen have kept their kiln running all summer but are unable to supply the demand.

Fagan Ranch Sold.

William Fagan of the Leap neighborhood, sold his ranch of 100 acres Saturday to William Knapp; consideration $4000. This is considered to be one of the best wheat ranches in that locality.

Bears Partial to Pigs.

Bears are reported to be making themselves very obnoxious to the ranchers up the river above Lostine by persisting in the habit of dining on the latter's pigs, geese and chickens. One rancher is reported to have lost 30 pigs.

$2500 for Alfalfa.

Lincoln Magill this week sold his entire crop of 500 tons of alfalfa hay to F. D. McCully for $5 per ton.

Business Openings.

Lostine needs a harness shop, a furniture store, a saw mill and a shoemaker. Any and all of the above enterprises could do well here.

Rushing R. R. Work.

A large plow and scrap gang is putting the finishing touches on the railroad road bed between Lostine and Wallowa. A day and night force is rapidly finishing the last piece of rock work in the canyon.

The Circuit Rider.

Rev. H. Martin, of Flora, will preach in Lostine next Sunday. The reverend is a survival of the old time "circuit rider," he having four appointments which are from 25 to 45 miles apart, sandwiched in between rugged mountain ranges and swift streams which he must cross in all kinds of weather. But unlike many of his more fortunately situated colleagues, Rev. Martin seldom disappoints his parishioners by being absent, and the whinney of his old gray horse is pretty sure to be heard each Saturday night in the neighborhood of his next day's appointment.

Schools Make Fine Progress.

The Lostine public school has reached a total enrollment of 128 and several more students will enter in the near future. Under the management of Prof. Smith and his excellent corps of assistants everything points toward an excellent school during the ensuing year.

No Contagious Diseases.

Lostine and vicinity has no smallpox nor scarlet fever, reports to the contrary notwithstanding.

Local and Personal.

Ira and Lewis Bloom returned home Friday from Cloverland, Wash., where they had been working in the harvest fields.

Homer Bemiss left Monday for Corvallis, where he will enter the State Agricultural college.

S. L. McKenzie, our veteran disciple Isaac Walton, made a fine catch of trout a few days ago, several of them measuring 16 to 18 inches in length.

Dr. Seeley, formerly of this place, writes friends in this city that he is enjoying a fine practice in his new home at Medford.

Mrs. Clifton, of Portland, mother of Miss Rebecca Clifton our primary teacher, arrived in the city Friday and will make her home with her daughter.

Irvine Whitmore has purchased the Bunnell residence occupied by Mr. Martin; consideration $500.

Evan Allen, who recently rented his ranch to his brother, informs your correspondent that he will soon move to Enterprise to reside.

Mrs. Frank Clark, of this city, is teaching the Middle Valley school, between Lostine and Wallowa.

Mrs. W. T. Potts received an elegant new piano from the East this week.

Lostine merchants are laying in immense fall and winter stocks of everything needed by the farmer and rancher.

R. C. Goodman, the popular cigar maker, returned Friday from a few days visit with friends at Baker City. Dame Rumor hath it that Mr. Goodman will visit Baker City again soon and not return alone.

The musical talent of Lostine is talking of rendering a cantata Christmas under the auspices of the Lostine Union Sunday school.

Chas. Mays and wife will leave in a few days to spend the winter at Starbuck, Wash.

Wm. Hunter is erecting a large new barn on his property in the east part of town.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Nowlin have gone to Portland where Mrs. Nowlin will undergo an operation for the removal of a large goitre.

A team driven by F. D. McCully of Joseph, ran away in the north end of town Friday, throwing the occupants of the hack out and badly demolishing the vehicle. No one was injured, however.

Summons

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Wallowa County.

H. P. Throe, Plaintiff, vs.
Mary A. Danforth and Lucius Danforth, her husband, and Larkin
Bunley, Defendants.

To Mary A. Danforth, Lucius Danforth and Larkin Bunley, the defendants above named:—

In the name of the State of Oregon:—You and each of you are hereby required to appear and answer to complaint filed against you in the above entitled cause on or before the expiration of six weeks from and after the date of the first publication of this Summons, which date of first publication is Saturday, September 21st, 1907, and if you fail so to appear and answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the Court for the relief prayed for in his complaint, to wit:—

For a decree requiring you and each of you to set forth the nature of your claim or interest in and to Lot numbered Eight and the South one-half of Lot numbered Nine in Block numbered Eleven in the town of Joseph, Wallowa county, Oregon, and that all adverse claims of you and each of you be determined by said decree; that you and each of you be adjudged and decreed to have no interest or claim in and to said real property or any part thereof; that plaintiff's title thereto be adjudged and decreed to be good and valid against you and each of you, and his title thereto quieted; and that you and each of you be forever barred and enjoined from asserting any claim or interest in and to said real property or any part thereof, adverse to the title of plaintiff; and for such other and further relief as to equity shall seem meet and agreeable.

This summons is served upon you by publication thereof in the News-Record, for the full period of six consecutive weeks, commencing with the date of September 21st, 1907, pursuant to an order of the Hon. O. M. Corkins, County Judge of Wallowa county, Oregon, which order is made and dated on the 18th day of September, 1907.
